Producers Exiting the Industry

The Board has recently reviewed policies regarding producers who are leaving the dairy industry. The previous policy allowed producers who are exiting the industry to sell quota on six exchanges following the last day of production. On the previous quota exchange this amounted to a three month period. However due to the recent changes to the quota exchange, the Board has reviewed a recommendation from the Quota Exchange Committee and made the following change;

Effective immediately, producers who are leaving the dairy industry (i.e. quitting production) will have two exchanges to sell quota on the quota exchange following receipt of their final milk pay statement.
